#RedWednesday Fundraising Ideas

Be inspired and show your support for Christians and others who suffer because of their faith.

If you are not able to get involved on the 28th November, use these ideas during Advent!

Coffee/Tea morning

A coffee morning is a great way to fundraise, providing the opportunity to join with others in solidarity. You can also include on the day, a small raffle to help raise funds and have red Rooibos tea!

Bake Sale

A cake sale or bake off is a great event for all ages. You can ask your parish, workplace or school to get involved! How about a Red Velvet cake? Ask all those who come along to make a donation or charge a price for your delightful treats!

Non-Uniform / Dress Down Day

A great fundraising idea for schools and your workplace. Wear an distinctive item of red clothing, symbolising your solidarity with those who suffer because of their Faith. Ask those who are getting involved to donate £1 each.

Lighting Red

An ideal way for your parish or local landmark to show your solidarity and support for #RedWednesday.

Lighting gels and filters are not expensive but make sure that you find a product that suits your building. Find out more at acnuk.org/redwednesday

Prayer Vigil

Hold a prayer vigil with your local parish, inviting family and friends to stand in solidarity and witness with those who suffer because of their faith

Tuck Shop

During the week of #RedWednesday activity, you can hold a tuck shop, with red products and sweets and fundraise to support persecuted Christians around the world.

School and Parish Resources

Use our assembly and lesson plans, including activities for the students which will help raise awareness.

#RedWednesday is your chance to stand in solidarity with persecuted Christians and others. Here are just some of the inventive ways that people (and pets!) have got involved.

Red Balloon Launch

Red is the colour of martyrdom, a symbol of victims of religious persecution. By hosting a balloon launch, you will show your solidarity. Fundraise by charging individuals to take part. (If you can, please do your bit for the planet by using bio-degradable balloons)

Write in Red Pen

Another way you can show your solidarity is in ink! Some schools have chosen to do an entire day of lessons in red ink. Red is a symbol of the victims of religious persecution, show your support for those who suffer because of their faith.

Pet Pooches

In 2017 we got a wide range of support from around the world and from animals too! They could wear a rosette or a red coloured item showing their solidarity!

Social Media: Red Headers

You can be a voice of faith and freedom on social media. Use our social media headers or change your headers to red, showing support for those suffering.
