Aid to the Church in Need

ACN UNITED KINGDOM

Dear Friends,

“We didn’t want to leave our home, but the roof fell in on us, so we had no choice”

Thank you for your practical and spiritual support for Christians around the world whose families and communities have been devastated by war and targeted violence.

Elderly pensioners, Remonde Ziade and his sisters Afef and Nawal were too frail to leave in 2012 when Christians fled their district in Homs, Syria. Having already lost family members, the Ziades survived a mortar strike, which brought down their roof. Evacuated for a year, their flat is now repaired and they are home, thanks to the local Church and Aid to the Church in Need.

They endure the freezing winters as best they can. Their stove provides warmth, helps to dry clothes and keeps the kettle going. Heating oil is scarce and very expensive since the war but is vital for Remonde who suffered a breakdown and is now partially paralysed and unable to speak. The family says, “We want to say thank you to all those people who are thinking of us. Your work is irreplaceable. And thank you not only for your financial aid, but also having come to visit us and let people know how we are living.”

By purchasing books, cards, DVDs, gifts and music that nurture your own faith and affirm your own right to live out your faith in peace, you will be supporting suffering families like this who trust in Our Lord and who urgently need our prayers and compassion.

With prayers for a holy Lent and a joyful Easter –

Neville Kyrke-Smith
UK National Director
