Aid to the Church in Need

ACN UNITED KINGDOM

Thank you.

Dear Friend,

"To keep my girl warm, we have been burning clothes that we no longer use."

In Qara city, near Damascus, Aid to the Church in Need has learned of the desperate and heartrending situation of a mother who ran out of money to heat their home for her disabled daughter.

Having come through war and destruction, Syria and Iraq are now at the mercy of coronavirus, with their economies in freefall and ever-increasing numbers of people plunged into desperate poverty. The practical – food, shelter, medicine, clothing – and spiritual support of ACN benefactors continue to be a lifeline.

Subject to COVID and other considerations, Pope Francis hopes to visit Iraq in March 2021. If so, the spotlight will fall again on the Middle East and the continuing desperate plight of the Christian and minority faith communities.

By purchasing cards, books, music and gifts that nurture and affirm your own faith, you will be supporting suffering Christians in the Middle East, Nigeria, Pakistan and other countries, who urgently need our prayers and compassion.

Sister Annie Demerjian, who is helping hundreds of vulnerable families in Syria says: "To all our ACN benefactors we say sincerely: Thank you for your enormous generosity. May God continue to keep you and your families safe and well."

Commending you to the protection of St Joseph, and with prayers for a holy Lent and a joyful Easter –

Neville Kyrke-Smith
UK National Director
