Welcome

At this momentous time in the Church as we joyfully welcome Pope Leo XIV as our new Holy Father, we remember and reflect on the life of Pope Francis, a devoted shepherd who served the Church with humility, courage, and love. His papacy was marked by a profound concern for the poor, the forgotten, and the Earth itself, echoing Christ's call to compassion and justice.

Pope Francis reminded us that the heart of the Church lies in mercy and service. His legacy of kindness, dialogue, and faith will continue to guide and inspire us. May he rest in the eternal peace of the Lord he followed so faithfully.

While the brochure has a wide choice of products, we have over 600 products available on our website, which has been updated to coincide with the
